

Workshop on Advanced Glasses with New Functionalities

The 1st Workshop on Advanced Glasses with New Functionalities @Matsuyama, Ehime, Japan

Dogo spa building with red glass window

Decorated tram

13:00–18:00 (18:00–20:00 for reception) on August 5, Wednesday, 2015 @Johoku Campus, Ehime University

International invited speakers:

- Dr. Richard K. Brow, Missouri University of Science and Technology, USA
“Sealing Glasses for Solid Oxide Fuel Cells and Related Devices”
- Dr. Ifty Ahmed, The University of Nottingham, UK
“Novel Microstructural Features for Cell and Biomaterial Interactions”

Domestic invited speakers:

- Dr. S. Yoshida, University of Shiga Prefecture
- Dr. N. Kitamura, National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology
- Dr. A. Saitoh, Ehime University
- Dr. K. Kadono, Kyoto Institute of Technology
- Dr. T. Ohkubo, Chiba University
- Dr. S. Tanabe, Kyoto University
- Dr. A. Masuno, The University of Tokyo
- Mr. H. Kobayashi, Japan Atomic Energy Agency

Fees:

¥2,000, except for students (free charge)

Contact to:

Dr. H. Takebe, Ehime University, takebe.hiromichi.mk@ehime-u.ac.jp

Organized by:

Materials Processing Engineering Laboratory, Graduate School of Science and Engineering, Ehime University

Supported by:

Glass Division, The Ceramic Society of Japan